THE COMPILER

Of these records of the Ballard Family, Mr. Charles Frederic Farlow, was born in Boston, Massachusetts, September 20, 1848. His father, Mr. John Smith Farlow, was born in Dublin, Ireland, January 12th, 1817; his mother, Nancy Wight Blanchard, born in Boston February 1st, 1816, was a daughter of John and Nancy (Frye) Blanchard, and granddaughter of Samuel and Lucy (Ballard) Blanchard, of Andover.

He was thus descended from William Ballard, one of the founders of Andover, and this fact made a starting point for Mr. Farlow's large interest and extensive amateur work in genealogy. He traced the family of the Lynn Ballards as well as his own kindred; he also did much in Blanchard, Frye and Harris genealogies. He spared neither time, trouble nor expense in gathering complete and accurate information from books and manuscripts, town, church and county records, and from wide correspondence, and worked when in ill health, in this country and in England. He died at Florence, Italy, February 6th, 1900. His collections were given to the Historic-Genealogical Society, of which he had long been a member, and the officers of the Society have afforded every opportunity for the family of Mr. Farlow to have this Ballard Genealogy copied, brought down to date and published.

An earnest effort has been made to present the work in the manner the compiler would have done had his life been spared to issue it. [See Hist. Gen. Register for 1901, p. lix, and No. 32 of the Andover Family in this volume.]

BALLARD GENEALOGY

BALLARDS IN ENGLAND

[By Mr. Earle.]

Mr. Farlow procured the services of genealogical searchers in England and he is considered to have thoroughly made out the history of the family there.

One of the most valuable sources of information in this direction is the wills and administrations of estates, which have been made and preserved in England from a most remote period. Without attempting to print all that was reported to him, we may well present a few of the most interesting, although none gives what can be regarded as the history of either of the William Ballards who founded the American family. Yet these may afford clues for future search.

Thomas Ballard, citizen and rafter chandler of London, will proved 18 Feb. 1620, mentions wife Joan and son John.

Henry Ballard, of Wadhurst, co. Sussex, will proved 16 Oct. 1622; wife Mary, married daughters and their children, nephews Mr. Thomas Ballard of Vauxhall.

Thomas Ballard of Peil in the parish of Wadhurst, gentleman; will dated 14 Dec., proved 4 May, 1624, sons Thomas, Richard and William; daughters Martha and Elizabeth; brother Richard Ballard of Lamberhurst; etc.

Richard Ballard, of London, gentleman; will dated 25 Mar. 1636, proved 1 Aug. 1638; brother Mr. Abraham Hulnes, rector of St. Olaves in Hart Street, London; brother William Ballard, reference to father Mr. Thomas Ballard; had purchased of brother William lands in Lillesden in the parish of Crundale in co. Kent; wife Katherine, brother Thomas Ballard, of Brooksbey.

Richard Ballard of Lamberhurst, Sussex; will dated 24 Feb. 1640, proved 18 September, 1641; daughter Elizabeth, Richard, wife Anne, daughter Mary, wife of Samuel Mappin, daughter Anne Rideout; brother in law William B. Slope.

Thomas Ballard of London, aged 67, died 10 Feb. 1646, proved 18 Dec. 1647. His will is given in full by his late father Thomas Ballard, Esq. in the copy by William Ballard; wife Anne; daughters Anne and Elizabeth; and sons Manly and Joshua. An John White and Mr. A. J. H. Jones, all books and records of parish records of White, of which whom he executed a bequest. The will was presented in court on the oath of "William Ballard friend."

It will be observed that this could not be Mr. William Ballard of Lynn, who married two years before the will, of Andover, and who lived in Lynn until 1637, when he died, and remained there till he died, while Anne, Newbury, was in settling Andover, he could not have been authorized to sign his name with the Latin word attached in Latin, and taken care of all these curious estates, which had been so qualified to take. Yet the matter has not been used by anyone now known on the case.

The following pair of wills may prove valuable.

James Ballard, of Haverhill, co. Worcester, Esq. died 1628, will dated 4 May, 1628, proved 16 May, 1628, son William, and his son William; son James; brother Philip.

Margaret Ballard, of Evesham, co. Warwick, died 1632, will 21 Feb. 1632, proved June 15, 1632. Son William's records.

Examination of parish records in each of these cases should be made to ascertain what became of these persons named in the wills.

The settlement of Massachusetts was made under a corporation called The Massachusetts Bay Company. In the records of the colony now extant in Massachusetts there are accounts of meetings of the Company in London before the management was transferred to New England. One of the members of the Company, mentioned as present at various meetings and participator in the business, was Mr. Daniel Ballard. His will is given in full. Though he did not name any relative who could have been either the Latin or Anlover pioneer, and may not have been in any near way connected with either of them, the fact of his activity in the settlement of New England and his bequest to the education of Indians here are tokens that he was heart and soul with them, and that went to make the Puritan and Pilgrim. So he well deserves to be remembered in the records of England by the American Ballards.

THE WILL OF DANIEL BALLARD

In the name of God Amen. I Daniel Ballard of the parish of St. Clements Bames in the county of Middlesex and draper of London beinge somewhat weak in hart and of sound and perfecte memory and reason do make test hereof therefore revoking all former wills and testaments by me heretofore made in what language or maner so ever I have made my testament in whatet and whomever maner I have made by my selfe and the name of Allmightie God the father of our Lord Jesus Christ my blessed Saviour and Redeemer by whose only merits death and passion I hope and trust is not standinge my unworthiness I shall be saved.

WILLIAM BALLARD OF LYNN

Was registered as a passenger, shipping from England to New England as we find in H. Hall's "Origin of Mass. Settlers."

"William Ballard, his arrival in 1622, with his wife, Mary. His estate valued him at £1000, and he died in 1637."

The mention of his wife and of two children, as mentioned here, one of them attesting during his life, corresponds with his entry in the records, which contain that this is from the family of the Attorney called by the name of Ballard, thus indicating a former name, or have been a name derived from the original location and locality, for the General Court of Massachusetts has appointed Ballard a magistrate, in the county of the name, "General" in the session held at Newbury, commencing about 1638. He was made a freeman of the colony May 2, 1648.

He had settled at Lynn, perhaps upon his arrival in New England, and had set out a series of land grants, the earliest record of the town extent, made in the year 1638. [Essex Court Files.] The court has granted a disability to him, out of an inability to serve on the jury, "that established the line between Salem and Lynn, which was then made March 16, 1638-9, because some part was made by some persons who had been hired to do so in 1637, and his name was in the list; but he was "discharged" Dec. 27, 1638, "as he had hired none but such as had lists," although a suit in court in 1637, and was a jurymen in 1638. He was one of the Committee, appointed Sept. 7, 1638, to set off land to Richard Bellingham; but he died before the work was completed, and another was appointed in his place May, 1640. [Essex Deeds, 2, 250.]

He died early in 1637, leaving no written will, but he told Nicholas Browne and Gerard Spence, Jr., his depositees, before his death, that he wished half his estate to go to his wife, and the rest to be divided amongst his children; and this nuncupative will was proved upon their testimony 1637.

1638-9. The Court had the information of the death of a certain Mr. Tyndal of England, who was called "Tyndal three" (as magistrate) June 6, 1639.

He married first, in England Mary ———, who died and left him in 1635 and must have had a few years before he married a second wife, Elizabeth ——— who survived him. She afterwards married William Knight* of Salisbury and lived with him also. He bequeathed to her and her heirs "the four children I had by my first wife Elizabeth" and made bequests also to John and Nathaniel Ballard of 20 shillings apiece, in full for saving any part of the money why he remembered them but when the children were of their legacies they received for them as from their father-in-law's steward as we now say. Knight's will was dated in 1653, proved in 1655. Elizabeth married John Ballard in 1656. Aiken Broad. Enobd.

In the records of Massachusetts reports are given of meetings held in London in the years 1628 and 1629 by the members of "The Massachusetts Bay Company" and others, many of whose attendances is noted, and a contribution raised for the cause of settlement in New England, viz. "Massachusetts Bay." There is no reason whatever to suppose that any of them ever here; but one cannot help wondering what connection, or not some connection or relationship between him and the man who came here and was honored by the Court with an appointment to an eminent position. [See Ballard in England.]

We have not an official list of the children of Mr. Ballard. A reference made by one of the sons to his "brother Joseph" is warrant for the placing in the list a daughter who married Joseph Jenks, Jr. There may have been other sons or daughters.

Children:

2. i. William[†], probably b. in England of first marriage.

* The town of Reading was formed from a district of land which Mr. Ballard had lands there. In the earliest records of Reading, viz. "the 6th of the 11th Month 1644" a division of land is made "To Samuel Dutton had in Meadow there was given to Thomas and Mr. Ballard's children which is to be owned and kept as aforesaid."

- iii. Elizabeth; probably the "Elizabeth Ballard" who m. May 22, 1684. Allen Bread, tertius.

3. JOHN² (William¹) born in England about 1634; married Susanna Story. [Salem Rec.] He also married a wife named Rebecca before 1676, as is shown in a deed quoted below.

He resided in a lawsuit 29 (4) 1655, giving his age as 21 years, that he was at work for his "mother James" (brother) of Joseph Armitage, etc. The following deposition is also interesting:

"John Ballard aged twenty-five years testifieth that he is at six months since I saw John Chasfield living in Barbadoes as witness my hand this 28th November 1659."

This shows that John had been at Barbadoes, either as a seaman or trader, following out the line in which he was engaged at the time he made the former deposition.

He died at Lynn June 11, 1725, in his 62d year. Inscription in Lynn Cemetery: "Here lies buried the body of Isaac John Ballard who died June y^e 11th 1725 in y^e 62nd y^r. of his age."

"I John Ballard & Nathanyal Ballard do hereby acknowledge to have fully received ye full legacy bequeathed to us by our father in law William Knights last will & testament being fifty shillings a piece, & doo fully hereby acquit our said father & his Bread son & all others concerned therein withesse our hands this 4th of Feb. 1661." Signed by J. B. & N. B. witnesses by Joseph Jenckes Jr. and John Fuller.

John Ballard of Lynn bought of Thomas Wheeler, late of Lynn, dwelling house in Lynn with water mill stones, &c. &c. etc. with all the working reets belonging there to with a barn house barne and outhouses, garden and orchard with a parcel of land adjoining thereunto, containing by estimation 5 acres bounded westerly by George Keuser, E. by town highway, the lane that goeth by John Newells, and with all tenes, rights, etc. etc. belonging to the same: 31. 8. 1666. Also 2 lots situated in Rumney Marsh.

John and Nathaniel Ballard of Lynn gave their land worth to Thos. Wheeler £400 sterling Oct. 26, 1666. Nathaniel made his mark and John signed his name.

John Ballard and wife Rebecca of Lynn for £125 sterling deeded to Henry Roads his dwelling house in Lynn with water mill stones etc., 17. 5mo: 1674, being the same he bought of Thomas Wheeler S. Sumo. 1673. Depositions regarding ownership of this estate. 11. 5mo. 1678.

He married second Clarissa H., daughter of Thomas and Hannah (Garland) Leavitt, born at Hampton, N. H., in March, 1800, died at Boston October 27, 1879.

The following obituary notice of Mr. Ballard presents his life-record in a suitable manner.

Joseph Ballard, a life resident of Boston, died November 23, 1877. He was born in Bromfield court near Washington street and opposite to the store which in after years became his place of business. In his boyhood he lived at the corner of Washington and West streets, and drove his father's cow to and from the "Common" where she was pastured. He attended the Latin school in School street, and in 1801 received a Franklin medal.

The business of Mr. Ballard from boyhood was that of carpet dealer. He began by carrying out goods in a wheelbarrow. In partnership with his brother John he founded the firm of J. & J. Ballard which was afterward changed to Ballard and Prince and still later to Sweetser & Abbot in Bromfield street. He made many voyages to Europe before the era of steamships, and was a large importer of foreign carpets. As such he was a strong advocate of free trade and an avowed opponent of the tariff. He was a Democrat of the old school. He was a Congregationalist, a member and loyal supporter of the Old South Church, for many years on its standing committee, and used his influence to prevent the abandonment of the ancient edifice.

WILLIAM BALLARD OF ANDOVER

Was born in England, as his name and associations here show, and about the year 1617, as by his deposition at a later time.

It has been believed by many historians that he is the "William Ballard" who shipped for New England March 26, 1634, in the "Mary and John". He would have been only about 18 years old at the time, rather an unusual age for a Pilgrim; but he was associated with several of those who came in that ship at Newbury where he owned land in 1645, and Andover, which may confirm the theory that he was this passenger.

He may have been a resident of Dedham in 1643; for when two men of that town, Thomas Bayes and Robert Crosman, were brought before the Court for "contumacious and turbulent speeches" and "offensive speeches," William Ballard acted with Henry Chickering, Tymo. Dwyre and Robert Hinsdel¹ in giving bonds for the payment of their fines. It is possible that mere friendship or former acquaintance led to the assistance he rendered to Bayes and Crosman. Dedham records, however, do not mention him.

Andover* was the plantation where the greater part of Mr. Ballard's life in New England was passed.

He married at a place and time not yet ascertained Grace —, whose name and family are not known to us.

His house was a place of hospitality. A simple testimony to this fact came out in the evidence he was giving in a neighbor's lawsuit in 1662; the spelling was that of the notary:

"The deposition of William Ballard : red a bough 45. This ¹The most ancient entry on the town records of Andover is a list headed:

"The names of all the free house holders in order as they came to towne."

The sixteenth name in this list is "William Ballard."

While no dates are given it is known from other sources that the men before him and some who follow actually settled at Andover in the year 1644, coming nearly all of them from Newbury.

deponent saith that a bought six weeks ago two ounces of Gold
 This being done she gave the said. Then wife left to come with her family for a time and live at his house in husband at that time not being at home which accordingly since did and there remaines to this time.

This was probably the first residence of Mr. Ballard. Its location is shown by the following abstract of a deed which he made the following year:

William Ballard of Andover, husbandman, exchanged lands with William Chandler, and deeded to him his house and barn and 4 acres of land and one hundred perch of bounded lands of Nathan Parker, John Lejoy, Andrew Allen of Chanler and by the highway; his wife Grace joining in the deed; date,
 May 20 and 25, 1663.

William Ballard died July 10, 1689, leaving no will.

He was an "ensign."

He and his brother John started a fulling mill. He and his wife were admitted to the So. Parish church Apr. 6. 1712. He was connected with the witchcraft prosecutions in Andover in a certain way. In a narrative drawn up by six of those who had been accused of being witches the following passage occurs:

"Joseph Ballard, of Andover, his wife being sick at the time he either from himself or by the advice of others, fetched two of the persons, called the afflicted persons, from Salem village to Andover, which was the beginning of that dreadful scandal that befel us in Andover, believing the said accusations to be true, sent for the said persons to come together to the meeting house in Andover, the afflicted persons being there. After Mr. Barnard had been at prayer, we were blindfolded, and our hands were laid upon the afflicted persons they leam in their fits and falling into their fits at our coming into their presence, as they said: and some led us and laid our hands upon them, and then they said they were well, and that we were guilty of afflicting of them; whereupon we were all seized, as prisoners, by a warrant from the justice of the peace, and forthwith carried to Salem." [N. E. Hist. Gen. Reg. 24. 401. 2.]

On 5 Feb. 1795, the water in the Kennebec river rose to the sills of Gen. Sewall's house and Jonathan Ballard who lived in the William Brook's store at the mouth of Bond's brook was flooded out. The water rose three or four feet from the house floor, and the concussion of the ice driving down the brook removed the house from its foundations and threw down the chimney. Mrs. Ballard who had been confined four days previously with her daughter Martha, and the family were in bed at the time. The water rose suddenly from the ice jamming below, and the inmates barely escaped before the house was swept from its foundations. Mrs. Ballard with the child was taken on the bed on which they lay and placed in a sleigh and carried to the house of James Burton; and although she was out three or four hours her mother found her the next day, as she relates, "comfortable to admiration."
